The Council

Section 20–3. Number; selection; term.

Each council member shall also receive a payment for each special meeting of the council or committee meeting for committees on which said council member is an appointed member in an amount as specified from time to time by the Mayor and

Additionally, each council member may be entitled to expenses for any other activity relating to town business at the discretion and upon the approval of the Mayor. The salary or other payments specified at the time any council takes office shall not be changed during the period for which that council was elected. Any change in the compensation set by the Mayor and approved by the council shall take effect only as to the members of the council thereafter elected. (1965 Code, sec. 642. At any regular or special meeting of the council held not less than six nor more than sixty days after the meeting at which an ordinance was introduced, it shall be passed, or passed as amended, or rejected, or its consideration deferred to some specified future date. In cases of emergency the above requirement may be suspended by the affirmative votes of four member [members] of the council. Every ordinance, unless it be passed as an emergency ordinance, shall become effective at the expiration of twenty calendar days following approval by the mayor or passage by the council over his veto. A fair summary of each ordinance shall be published at least twice in a newspaper or newspapers having general circulation in the municipality. A complete and exact copy of the proposed ordinance shall be posted at the Town Hall for a period of twenty days following its adoption. Any ordinance approved by the mayor shall be law. Any ordinance disapproved by the mayor shall be returned with a message stating the reasons for his disapproval. Any disapproved ordinance shall not become a law unless subsequently passed by a favorable vote of four–fifths of the whole council within thirty–five calendar days from the time of the return of the ordinance. If, before the expiration of twenty calendar days following approval of any ordinance by the mayor or passage of any ordinance over the mayor’s veto, a petition is filed with the clerk–treasurer containing the signatures of not less than twenty per centum (20%) of the qualified voters of the town and requesting that the ordinance, or any part thereof, be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the town for their approval or disapproval, the council shall have the ordinance, or the part thereof requested for referendum, submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the town at the next regular town election or, in the council’s discretion, at a special election occurring before the next regular election. No ordinance, or the part thereof requested for referendum, shall become effective following the receipt of such petition until and unless approved at the election by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question. An emergency ordinance, or the part thereof requested for referendum, shall continue in effect for sixty days following receipt of such petition. If the question of approval or disapproval of any emergency ordinance, or any part thereof, has not been submitted to the qualified voters within sixty days following receipt of the petition, then the operation of the ordinance, or the part thereof requested for referendum, shall be suspended until approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question at any election. Any ordinance, or part thereof, disapproved by the voters, shall stand repealed. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any ordinance, or part thereof, passed under the authority of Section 20–58, levying property taxes for the payment of indebtedness, but the provisions of this section shall apply to any ordinance, or any part thereof, levying special assessment charges under the provisions of Sections 20–88 and 20–89. The provisions of this section shall be self-executing, but the council may adopt ordinances in furtherance of these provisions and not in conflict with them. (1965 Code, sec. 651. Res., Feb. 28, 1956, sec. 14.)

(d) Any contract for expenditures for supplies, materials, equipment, construction of public improvements or a contractual service involving more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) shall be made on written contract.

(e) The Town at any time in its discretion may employ its own force for the construction or reconstruction of public improvements without advertising for or receiving bids. (g) All written contracts may be protected by such bonds, penalties, and conditions as the town may require.

(h) The following shall be exceptions to the requirement to advertise for sealed bids set forth herein above:

(1) Sole source procurement. A contract involving $15,000.00 or more may be awarded without competition when the clerk–treasurer determines, after a good faith review of available sources, that there is only one source for the required supplies, materials, equipment, construction of public improvements or contractual services. The clerk–treasurer shall conduct negotiations, as appropriate, as to price, delivery and terms. Sole–source procurement shall be subject to approval by the town council.

(2) Emergency procurement. In an emergency, the mayor, the president of the town council or the clerk–treasurer may authorize emergency procurement of all required supplies, materials, equipment, construction improvements or contractual services where there exists a threat to public health, safety or welfare. The mayor, the president of the town council or the clerk–treasurer, whichever of them authorizes the procurement, shall notify the town council promptly, in writing, of any emergency procurement exceeding $5,000.00 or any procurement below that amount if it has not been appropriated for this purpose by the council.

(3) Where the advertisement for sealed bids is impractical, unreasonable or disadvantageous to the town, the clerk–treasurer shall institute an alternative procurement method by utilizing the open market. In that regard, the clerk–treasurer shall obtain at least three (3) quotations or offers. Upon receipt of the same, the clerk–treasurer shall place the bids or offers upon the agenda of the town council with a recommendation. Thereafter, the town council may reject bids or offers or accept such bid or offer which in its judgment is in the best interests of the town. (1965 Code, sec. 697. Following the hearing the council, in its discretion, may vote to proceed with the project and may levy the special assessment.

(g) Payment. Special assessments may be made payable in annual or more frequent installments over such period of time, not to exceed thirty (30) years, and in such manner as the council may determine. The council shall determine on what date installments shall be due and payable. Interest may be charged on installments at the rate to be determined by the council.
