

TOWN OF BLADENSBURG, MD POLICE CHIEF JOB DESCRIPTION

The Town of Bladensburg located in Prince Georges County, is a residential suburb of Washington, D.C., bordered by the Anacostia River with a culturally and economically diverse population of 9,148 as of the 2010 Census. Due to the Town's direct access to Washington, D.C., Interstate 495 and the Baltimore Washington Parkway, Bladensburg continues to see a growth in the Town' population.

JOB SUMMARY

The Town of Bladensburg is seeking a professional law enforcement officer to serve as the Town's new Chief of Police. The Chief of Police is responsible for directing, planning, and managing all functions and operations of the Police Department in the enforcement of laws and ordinances, the prevention of crime, and protection of life and property. Other key competencies include:

- Committed to continuously develop and enhance community-oriented policing
- Exemplary leader within the police department and in the community at large
- Knowledgeable in best practices in law enforcement and how to implement them
- Experience in organizational planning and staff development
- Ability to develop and maintain effective working relationships with the Town Administrator, Mayor and Town Council, employees of other departments, representatives of outside agencies, and the public.

The position is a key member of the management team, providing advanced professional expertise and guidance regarding public safety and police response; and must demonstrate personal and professional integrity of the highest order, in both public and private life. Activities are conducted with considerable operational independence and sound personal judgment under broad supervision. The Chief of Police reports directly to the Town Administrator and is responsible for supervising all subordinate full and part-time sworn and non-sworn officers.

The Town offers an excellent benefits package to include medical, dental and vision. The salary range is $100,000 to $110,000.
