Safety and Health

The safety of our employees, subcontracted partners, clients, and work environments continues to be our first priority.

EA's safety statistics—including an Experience Modification Rate (EMR) that consistently remains below the industry benchmark of 1.0—and National Safety Council awards reflect our commitment to maintaining a safe work environment.

EA is an active member of numerous third-party supplier management services that require continual improvement in health and safety program performance.

Sustainability Commitment

As a 100% employee-owned Public Benefit Corporation, EA has committed to periodic third-party review of our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programs. EA is rated "Gold" by from EcoVadis, a leading supply chain consultancy which helps organizations evaluate the economic and social performance of their suppliers. Our rating places EA in the "Advanced" category for CSR performance and is summarized as "structured and proactive CSR approach, policies and tangible actions on major topics, and basic reporting on actions or performance indicators." EA currently ranks in the top 1% of all of EcoVadis suppliers overall. In 2019, EcoVadis named EA "Best Performer: North America."
